4

5           H. The facts alleged in the Complaint will be taken as true, without further
6 proof, in any subsequent civil litigation by or on behalf of the Commission,
7 including in a proceeding to enforce its rights to any payment or monetary
8 judgment pursuant to this Order, such as a nondischargeability complaint in any 9 bankruptcy case.
10

11           I. The facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to 12 sustain an action by the Commission pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the

23 deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its designee to be used 24 for equitable relief, including consumer redress and any attendant expenses for the 25
26
27
28

1 administration of any redress fund. If a representative of the Commission decides
2 that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or money
3 remains after redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining
4 money for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies)
5 as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendants' practices alleged in the 6 Complaint. Any money not used for such equitable relief is to be deposited to the 7 U.S. Treasury as disgorgement. Defendants have no right to challenge any actions
8 the Commission or its representatives may take pursuant to this Subsection.
9

11 L. The freeze on the assets of Defendants pursuant to Section II of the 12 Stipulated Preliminary Injunction entered in this action on September 30, 2013, is 13 modified to permit the payments and other transfers of assets identified in this 14 Section. Upon completion of all payment and other obligations identified in this 15 Section, the asset freeze is dissolved. A financial institution shall be entitled to 16 rely upon a letter from the Commission stating that the freeze on the Defendants'
17 Assets has been lifted.
18
